Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Roger Deutsch graduated from Sisseton High School and Northern State University, earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Secondary Education with a double major in Political Science and Recreation, and a minor in Health and Physical Education; and,

Whereas, Roger taught three years in Hecla before starting his career with the Parker School District in 1981. He taught 7th grade History, 8th grade Civics, Junior High Health, and Freshman World History, and coached Varsity Girls Basketball where they finished in 4th place at the 1982 state tournament; and,

Whereas, Roger and his wife, Sue, have two children, Gretchen and Adam, and they are blessed with three grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Roger will soon enjoy more time golfing, spending time with his family, and attending sporting events when he officially retires on May 23, 2011; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many contributions and accomplishments of this special South Dakotan as his colleagues, family, and friends gather to honor and congratulate Roger:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 23, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family, colleagues, students, and friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
